FAITH, LOVE AND HOPE

Sunday, May 23, 2021, 10 am – 12 pm

At the home of Alicia Santacrose
233 Autumn Rose Lane,
Fallbrook 92028

“Faith, love, hope, constitute three stages in the essential being of man; they are necessary for health and for life as a whole, for without them we cannot exist. Just as work cannot be done in a dark room until light is obtained, it is equally impossible for a human being to carry on in his fourfold nature if his three sheaths are not permeated, warmed through, and strengthened by faith, love, and hope. For faith, love, hope are the basic forces in our astral body, our etheric body, and our physical body. ..” Rudolf Steiner, GA 130

We will explore these three virtues in relation to our own lives through images, artistic exercises and conversation to gain new perspectives and insights. Materials will be provided. Please bring your interest, openness and warmth as we create a vessel for positive working spirits.

REGISTRATION:

Please register well in advance, as the workshop requires a minimum of 12 and a maximum of 15 persons.

Email: patrubano@hotmail.com

Space is limited in order to create distance. Bring your masks for times when we will be in closer proximity.

Thanks to a generous grant from Janey Newton, the Center for Biography and Social Art is able to offer this workshop free of charge.
